

2023

CELEBRATE GIVING

OCTOBER 25
RECEPTION: 5-6 P.M. |
EVENT: 6 P.M.

UTEC
35 WARREN ST.
LOWELL

Creating an Inclusive Cultural Economy

Join the Greater Lowell Community Foundation as we focus on Creating an Inclusive Cultural Economy at this year's Celebrate Giving event. This event will highlight our related work in the community, including Mosaic Lowell, a fiscally sponsored program of GLCF and other creative partners.

KEYNOTE

Michael J. Bobbitt is a theater director, choreographer, and playwright who has dedicated his professional career to arts leadership. He joined Mass Cultural Council as Executive Director in February 2021, and is the highest-ranking cultural official in Massachusetts state government. Upon joining the Agency, he was invited to serve on the Board of Directors for the New England Foundation for the Arts (NEFA) and the National Assembly of State Arts Agencies' (NASAA). As Executive Director Michael has led Mass Cultural Council through the development of its first-ever Racial Equity Plan; worked with staff, Council Members, and cultural sector advocates to secure and distribute a historic $60.1M in state pandemic relief funding; and overseen the drafting and adoption of the Agency's FY24-FY26 strategic plan.

Also, featuring:

- 2023 Business Philanthropy Partner Award
- 2023 Steven Joncas Community Connector Award
- 2023 Bankers' Volunteer Award for Lifetime Achievement

Cost: $100

Sponsorship opportunities are available, see website for details.

Photo credit: Johnny BTS Design Studio

Michael J. Bobbitt
Exec. Director, Mass Cultural Council

REGISTER NOW AT

WWW.GLCFOUNDATION.ORG

978-970-1600 info@glcfoundation.org

PREMIER PARTNER

